AASV Foundation

The AASV Foundation, a 501 (c) (3) corporation, was founded in 1989 as the charitable arm of the AASV. Funding for foundation programs is provided by corporate donations, the Leman, Heritage, and Legacy giving programs, individual donations and bequests, and fundraising efforts.

As a result of generous support by member and corporate donors, the AASV Foundation administers a number of ongoing programs to carry out its mission.

What do your contributions support?

- Howard Dunne Memorial Lectures
- Alex Hogg Memorial Lectures
- Veterinary Student Scholarships
- Hogg Scholarships
- ABVP Swine Health Management Scholarships
- American College of Animal Welfare Scholarships
- Swine Research Grants
- Student Debt Relief Grants
- Swine Externship Grants
- Annual Meeting Travel Stipends
- Heritage "Member Recollection" Videos

Your generous support of the AASV Foundation helps ensure the future of these and other foundation programs. For more information about the AASV Foundation, visit aasv.org/foundation.
