

Helpful Resources for Swine Education

Quick Facts from National Pork Board

Everything you need to know about the swine industry. This site contains facts and information about industry statistics, fun facts, environmental management, pork consumption, history of the swine industry, swine housing and care and more. There is also a glossary that includes definitions for all terms related to modern pork production.

www.pork.org/newsandinformation/quickfacts

Neonatal Management Practices Fact Sheet from National Pork Board

Details the hows and whys of piglet management, including teeth clipping, ear notching, iron injections, castration, cross-fostering and tail docking.

www.pork.org/PorkScience/Documents/SWINE%20WELFAREFACTSHT-neona.pdf

PCV2 Information from Iowa State University

Detailed information regarding PCV2 and the clinical manifestations observed in swine.

www.pcv2.org

PPRS Information

Some general information regarding PPRS virus and its effects.

www.thepigsite.com/diseaseinfo/97/porcine-reproductive-respiratory-syndrome-prrs

SIV Information

Some general information regarding swine influenza.

<http://www.thepigsite.com/pighealth/article/143/swine-influenza-virus-si>

Foreign Animal Disease: "The Gray Book"

The reference for information on foreign and reportable animal diseases of all species, including photos.

http://www.vet.uga.edu/vpp/gray_book02/

American Association of Swine Veterinarians

902 1st Avenue

Perry, Iowa 50220 USA

Tel: 515-465-5255 Fax: 515-465-3832

Email: aasv@aasv.org

Web site: www.aasv.org