Dear Allied Industry Affiliates,

The AASV and AASV Foundation sincerely appreciate your continued financial support of our efforts to heighten the awareness of our industry and profession at meetings and social functions.

The AASV Foundation is making plans for the tenth annual Midwest Golf Outing, scheduled for Wednesday, August 25. Since last year's event was cut short by the weather, we will return to Fox Ridge Golf Club in Dike, Iowa, to allow golfers to fully experience the course. We are also pleased to announce that ISU Dean John Thomson will be our guest speaker during the Awards Dinner. All proceeds from the event go to support the activities and programs of the AASV Foundation.

It is only through your continued financial support that the Foundation will continue to grow. Enclosed, please find a list of opportunities to sponsor holes, lunch, beverages, and the Awards Dinner. The registration brochure to be printed and mailed to AASV members will include the list of event sponsors.

Please forward any questions in regard to the event to Tom or Sue at the AASV office, and confirm your sponsorship intentions by May 14 to assure recognition in the printed brochure.

I look forward to seeing you on the golf course in August!

Thank you for your continued support of AASV.

Sincerely,

Ron. D. White, D.V.M
